

SACLA P.E. Family Track Workshop

Nelson Mandela Bay

Marriage & Family Commitment Policy

You are invited to participate in a workshop to discuss the formulation of the Nelson Mandela Bay Marriage & Family Commitment Policy.

Marriage and family is the foundational building block of a healthy community and nation. The health and wellbeing of marriage and family has a direct impact on:

- Divorce and family breakdown
- The protection and raising of our children
- Domestic violence and abuse
- Poverty and crime
- Productivity levels in the workplace
- Education
- Health e.g. Aids
- Personal taxation and costs to governing the city

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Pastors and all leaders involved in family related issues

WHAT ARE THE OBJECTIVES OF THE WORKSHOP:

1. To stand together as a united metropole to work out a policy to fight this giant that threatens to destroy the cement that holds our society together.
2. To adopt a commitment policy and to formulate and implement specific strategies to reduce the breakdown of marriages and family and the effect on society.

VENUE: City Hall
DATE: Friday 15th October 2004
TIME: 09:00 to 13:00
COST: R20-00 Per person payable at door

This workshop is open to all leaders. Registration fee paid at door will cover the cost of the hall rental and refreshments.
